

THE KENT

VOLUME 1.

MOUNT STERLING

The Kentucky Sentinel,
PUBLISHED WEEKLY, AT
MOUNT STERLING, Kentucky.
BY
WILLIAM T. HANLY,
AT
Three Dollars a Year, Invariably in Advance.

RATES AND RULES OF ADVERTISING.

|          | 1st    | 2nd | 3rd | 4th | 5th | 6th | 7th | 8th | 9th | 10th | 11th | 12th |
|----------|--------|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|------|------|------|
| 1 Square | $1.00 | .80 | .60 | .40 | .30 | .20 | .15 | .10 | .08 | .06  | .04  | .03  |
| 2 do     | .80    | .60 | .40 | .30 | .20 | .15 | .10 | .08 | .06 | .04  | .03  | .02  |
| 3 do     | .60    | .40 | .30 | .20 | .15 | .10 | .08 | .06 | .04 | .03  | .02  | .01  |
| 4 do     | .40    | .30 | .20 | .15 | .10 | .08 | .06 | .04 | .03 | .02  | .01  | .01  |
| 5 do     | .30    | .20 | .15 | .10 | .08 | .06 | .04 | .03 | .02 | .01  | .01  | .01  |
| 6 do     | .20    | .15 | .10 | .08 | .06 | .04 | .03 | .02 | .01 | .01  | .01  | .01  |
| 7 do     | .15    | .10 | .08 | .06 | .04 | .03 | .02 | .01 | .01 | .01  | .01  | .01  |
| 8 do     | .10    | .08 | .06 | .04 | .03 | .02 | .01 | .01 | .01 | .01  | .01  | .01  |
| 9 do     | .08    | .06 | .04 | .03 | .02 | .01 | .01 | .01 | .01 | .01  | .01  | .01  |
| 10 do    | .06    | .04 | .03 | .02 | .01 | .01 | .01 | .01 | .01 | .01  | .01  | .01  |

A square is 10 lines or less of this size type.
Marriage and Death notices will be inserted free of charge.
Obituary notices will be charged for at the rate of $1.00 for the first ten lines, and six cents each for every additional line.
No full funeral advertisements inserted under any circumstances.
Announcing candidates $5.00.
Transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.
Liberal arrangements will be made with annual advertisers.

JOE WOOL
All Job Work must be paid for on delivery.

COUNTY DIRECTORY.
Circuit Court—Hon. R. Apperson, Jr., Judge.
J. S. Day, County Attorney.
J. M. Crawford, Clerk.
County Court—Hon. Calvin Brock, Judge.
J. D. Reid, County Attorney.
P. C. Bedford, Sheriff.
J. H. Trimble, Deputy.
Police Court—Thomas Metcalfe, Judge.
John W. Rose, Marshal.
B. A. Seaver, Prob. Attorney.

PROFESSIONAL.
B. A. SEEVER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW
MT. STERLING, KY.
Will attend promptly to all business confided to his care.
Office North side Public Square.
Je 13-7

T. TURNER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW
MOUNT STERLING, KY.
Will practice in Montgomery, Bath, Powell, and Clark counties, and in the Court of Appeals.
July 28, 1895.

J. S. DURY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW
AND
COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY
FOR THE 11TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.
Office Mayville Street,
MOUNT STERLING, KENTUCKY.
July 13, 1895.

HOLT & HURST,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
MT. STERLING, KY.
Will attend promptly to all business confided to their care in Montgomery, Bath, Powell, Wolfe, Morgan, Magellan, Owsley, and Breathitt counties, and in the Court of Appeals.
Oct. 27.

REID & REID,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
MT. STERLING, KY.
Will attend promptly to all business confided to their care. Special attention will be given to the collection of all claims against the United States Government.
Je 13-7

O. S. TENNEY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW
MAYVILLE STREET,
MOUNT STERLING, KENTUCKY.
Je 13-7

HAZEL RIGG & WINN,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS
AT LAW
Office on Main Street, Mount Sterling, Ky.
July 13, 1895-7

DR. J. T. HOOD,
MT. STERLING, KY.
Tenders his Professional Services to the citizens of this place and Montgomery county.
Office over H. Campbell's Clothing Establishment.
City 13-1895.

DR. CHARLES DUERSON,
Office at the Drug Store of J. P. Young & Co., MAIN STREET, MOUNT STERLING, KY.
Tenders his professional services to the citizens of this place, and Montgomery county.
July 13, 1895-7

T. H. RIGGEN,
DENTIST,
MAIN STREET, MT. STERLING, KY.
August 4, 1895.

DR. J. THORNLEY,
MT. STERLING, KY.
Office—Over Anderson & Wilkerson's Dry Goods Store. Residence, Mrs. J. T. Hazelrigg's.
Aug. 4, 1895-6m.

THOMAS METCALFE,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
MT. STERLING, KY.
Office on Mayville Street.

J. R. CARRETT,
ATTORNEY AT LAW
MT. STERLING, KY.
Will attend promptly to all business entrusted to his care.
OFFICE—On Main Street, over B. P. BEEKLEY'S HARDWARE STORE.
Jan 2

J. M. ELLIOTT,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
OWINGSVILLE, KY.
Will practice his profession in the following counties, to-wit: Bath, Montgomery, Wolfe, Morgan, Magellan, Floyd, Johnson and Powell. All business placed in his care will be promptly attended to. He will also practice in the Appellate Court of Kentucky.
[Nov. 3-11]

Select Poetry.

CONJUGAL POETRY.

An editor, David Parker, Esq., who has produced some of the best poetry ever written by a Maine man, pleased at a little incident that happened in his family, (the first occurrence of the kind) gives vent to his feelings in the following interesting and imaginative effusion, entitled

"My child's onions."

One night as old Saint Peter slept,
He left the door of Heaven ajar,
When through a little angel crept,
And came down with a falling star.
One summer, as the blessed brow
Of youth approached my blessing eye,
Awake from sweet and pleasing dreams,
And found that angel by my side.

God grant but this—I ask no more—
That when he leaves this world of sin,
He'll wing his way to that bright shore,
And find that door of Heaven again.

Whereupon, some fellow of a practical turn,
Without any imagination, and not possessed of the "divine afflatus," has attempted to destroy the illusion of David as follows:

DAVID PARKER'S REPLY.

Full eleven hundred years or more,
I've kept my door securely tiled,
There was no little angel strayed,
Nor one been missing all the while.
I did not sleep, as you supposed,
Nor left the gate of Heaven ajar,
Nor has a little angel left,
And gone down with a falling star.

God grant but this—I ask no more—
That should your number still enlarge,
That you will not do as before,
And lay it to Saint Peter's charge.

Select Story.

THE POISONED POWDER.

There are various traditions as to the origin of the Golden Lily upon the shield of France. Among those is the following incident, said to have occurred in the latter part of the 11th century, during the reign of Louis VII.

The Princess Constance, when she was a child, the daughter of King Louis VII, and when she was a girl, the wife of King Henry II, was a very beautiful girl, and was very much beloved by her subjects. She was also very much beloved by her husband, King Henry II, who was a very good king, and a very brave warrior.

One day, when the Princess Constance was a girl, she was very much beloved by her subjects. She was also very much beloved by her husband, King Henry II, who was a very good king, and a very brave warrior.

One day, when the Princess Constance was a girl, she was very much beloved by her subjects. She was also very much beloved by her husband, King Henry II, who was a very good king, and a very brave warrior.

One day, when the Princess Constance was a girl, she was very much beloved by her subjects. She was also very much beloved by her husband, King Henry II, who was a very good king, and a very brave warrior.

One day, when the Princess Constance was a girl, she was very much beloved by her subjects. She was also very much beloved by her husband, King Henry II, who was a very good king, and a very brave warrior.

One day, when the Princess Constance was a girl, she was very much beloved by her subjects. She was also very much beloved by her husband, King Henry II, who was a very good king, and a very brave warrior.

One day, when the Princess Constance was a girl, she was very much beloved by her subjects. She was also very much beloved by her husband, King Henry II, who was a very good king, and a very brave warrior.

One day, when the Princess Constance was a girl, she was very much beloved by her subjects. She was also very much beloved by her husband, King Henry II, who was a very good king, and a very brave warrior.

ful distance, just near enough to be within

call, should his lady require assistance. One morning she passed in front of a little cottage, situated in a perfect wilderness of bloom. As an involuntary ejaculation of surprise and admiration escaped her lips, a pretty, intelligent looking girl raised her bright eyes from the rosebush she was pruning.

"I have some handsomer within, arranged in bouquets," she said, smiling, "if madam would like to examine them."

Throwing the reins of her horse to her attendant, the Countess alighted, and to the surprise of the servant, who had never known her so highly interested in the beauty of so much condescension before.

At the Countess entered the little, low room, the pretty flower girl displayed her beautiful collection of bouquets with pardonable pride.

"All any of them are at your service, with the exception of this," she said, pointing to one composed of golden lilies and white roses, and relieved by a few leaves of green; "it is for the King."

"So King Philip buys the flowers, pretty maiden?"

"Yes, madame; I have orders to bring them to the palace daily. The golden lily is his favorite flower; and there are only those in bloom to-day."

"I will take this," said the Countess, selecting one of the bouquets, and taking from her purse a gold piece of more than double the value, "but first bring me a cool draught of water from the spring yonder."

With a light step the young girl took a pitcher and passed out to the spring that was but a short distance from the door. As she glanced in and saw, much to her surprise, her visitor bending over the stand of flowers, and apparently sprinkling something from her hand upon those she had laid aside for the King.

"When she took it away her eye caught a gleam of a small golden flask, such as the ladies of that period used for their cosmetics and perfumery. But when she entered the room, she found her in the same position in which she had been when she came out."

She could not forbear to observe that the Countess was drawing her robe over her head, and turning to the door.

"Take my advice, my good girl; place the stand nearest the window, and be not much over there; their perfume is quite too strong for so small a room."

There was something about those words, carelessly spoken though they were, that deepened the undefined suspicions in the young girl's heart; and following her suggestion, she placed the stand of flowers directly in front of the open window. Then by a close examination of the bouquet detained for the King she detected the presence of a fine white powder, so impalpable to the eye upon the white petals of the rose but clearly visible upon the lilies whose peculiar shape by exposing the leaves to the fall rays of the sun as well as their vivid color, threw it into strong relief; and as she bent over them the faint but penetrating odor that arose made her so giddy that she would have fallen had it not been for the tall and shapely youth who had just entered and whose lively showed him to be in the service of the King.

It was her lover, Francois, King Philip's body servant, and who, passing by the house, called to have a chat with his betrothed.

"How, now, Marie?" he said, looking into her face. "What has frightened the roses from your cheek, and given you such a strange look?"

The honest hearted fellow was sincerely attached to his royal master, and he listened gravely to Marie's account of the strange conduct of her visitor, and the suspicion to which it gave rise.

Marie had been so much interested in the beauty of so much condescension before.

At the Countess entered the little, low room, the pretty flower girl displayed her beautiful collection of bouquets with pardonable pride.

"All any of them are at your service, with the exception of this," she said, pointing to one composed of golden lilies and white roses, and relieved by a few leaves of green; "it is for the King."

"So King Philip buys the flowers, pretty maiden?"

"Yes, madame; I have orders to bring them to the palace daily. The golden lily is his favorite flower; and there are only those in bloom to-day."

"I will take this," said the Countess, selecting one of the bouquets, and taking from her purse a gold piece of more than double the value, "but first bring me a cool draught of water from the spring yonder."

With a light step the young girl took a pitcher and passed out to the spring that was but a short distance from the door. As she glanced in and saw, much to her surprise, her visitor bending over the stand of flowers, and apparently sprinkling something from her hand upon those she had laid aside for the King.

"When she took it away her eye caught a gleam of a small golden flask, such as the ladies of that period used for their cosmetics and perfumery. But when she entered the room, she found her in the same position in which she had been when she came out."

She could not forbear to observe that the Countess was drawing her robe over her head, and turning to the door.

"Take my advice, my good girl; place the stand nearest the window, and be not much over there; their perfume is quite too strong for so small a room."

There was something about those words, carelessly spoken though they were, that deepened the undefined suspicions in the young girl's heart; and following her suggestion, she placed the stand of flowers directly in front of the open window. Then by a close examination of the bouquet detained for the King she detected the presence of a fine white powder, so impalpable to the eye upon the white petals of the rose but clearly visible upon the lilies whose peculiar shape by exposing the leaves to the fall rays of the sun as well as their vivid color, threw it into strong relief; and as she bent over them the faint but penetrating odor that arose made her so giddy that she would have fallen had it not been for the tall and shapely youth who had just entered and whose lively showed him to be in the service of the King.

It was her lover, Francois, King Philip's body servant, and who, passing by the house, called to have a chat with his betrothed.

"How, now, Marie?" he said, looking into her face. "What has frightened the roses from your cheek, and given you such a strange look?"

The honest hearted fellow was sincerely attached to his royal master, and he listened gravely to Marie's account of the strange conduct of her visitor, and the suspicion to which it gave rise.

"It has a bad look," he said thoughtfully; "though I believe there is nothing in it. By good luck, I have orders to attend his majesty in his private apartments an hour hence. I will put him on his guard; then surely no harm can come of it."

Somewhat to the surprise of Francois, the King manifested no disquietude at this disclosure, though the grave look and attentive manner with which he listened, showed that he considered it of no light import. He bade him charge Marie to tell no one of what she had discovered, and to come to the palace with her flowers an hour earlier than was her wont, by no means forgetting the golden lilies.

King Philip sat in his audience hall, surrounded by his retinue. A number of the royal family stood near him—among them the Count de Neville, his wife, and the little son, a sweet boy of three, whose winning and sprightly ways made him a favorite with the King.

Marie had been so much interested in the beauty of so much condescension before.

At the Countess entered the little, low room, the pretty flower girl displayed her beautiful collection of bouquets with pardonable pride.

"All any of them are at your service, with the exception of this," she said, pointing to one composed of golden lilies and white roses, and relieved by a few leaves of green; "it is for the King."

"So King Philip buys the flowers, pretty maiden?"

"Yes, madame; I have orders to bring them to the palace daily. The golden lily is his favorite flower; and there are only those in bloom to-day."

"I will take this," said the Countess, selecting one of the bouquets, and taking from her purse a gold piece of more than double the value, "but first bring me a cool draught of water from the spring yonder."

With a light step the young girl took a pitcher and passed out to the spring that was but a short distance from the door. As she glanced in and saw, much to her surprise, her visitor bending over the stand of flowers, and apparently sprinkling something from her hand upon those she had laid aside for the King.

"When she took it away her eye caught a gleam of a small golden flask, such as the ladies of that period used for their cosmetics and perfumery. But when she entered the room, she found her in the same position in which she had been when she came out."

She could not forbear to observe that the Countess was drawing her robe over her head, and turning to the door.

"Take my advice, my good girl; place the stand nearest the window, and be not much over there; their perfume is quite too strong for so small a room."

There was something about those words, carelessly spoken though they were, that deepened the undefined suspicions in the young girl's heart; and following her suggestion, she placed the stand of flowers directly in front of the open window. Then by a close examination of the bouquet detained for the King she detected the presence of a fine white powder, so impalpable to the eye upon the white petals of the rose but clearly visible upon the lilies whose peculiar shape by exposing the leaves to the fall rays of the sun as well as their vivid color, threw it into strong relief; and as she bent over them the faint but penetrating odor that arose made her so giddy that she would have fallen had it not been for the tall and shapely youth who had just entered and whose lively showed him to be in the service of the King.

It was her lover, Francois, King Philip's body servant, and who, passing by the house, called to have a chat with his betrothed.

"How, now, Marie?" he said, looking into her face. "What has frightened the roses from your cheek, and given you such a strange look?"

The honest hearted fellow was sincerely attached to his royal master, and he listened gravely to Marie's account of the strange conduct of her visitor, and the suspicion to which it gave rise.

"It has a bad look," he said thoughtfully; "though I believe there is nothing in it. By good luck, I have orders to attend his majesty in his private apartments an hour hence. I will put him on his guard; then surely no harm can come of it."

Somewhat to the surprise of Francois, the King manifested no disquietude at this disclosure, though the grave look and attentive manner with which he listened, showed that he considered it of no light import. He bade him charge Marie to tell no one of what she had discovered, and to come to the palace with her flowers an hour earlier than was her wont, by no means forgetting the golden lilies.

King Philip sat in his audience hall, surrounded by his retinue. A number of the royal family stood near him—among them the Count de Neville, his wife, and the little son, a sweet boy of three, whose winning and sprightly ways made him a favorite with the King.

Marie had been so much interested in the beauty of so much condescension before.

At the Countess entered the little, low room, the pretty flower girl displayed her beautiful collection of bouquets with pardonable pride.

"All any of them are at your service, with the exception of this," she said, pointing to one composed of golden lilies and white roses, and relieved by a few leaves of green; "it is for the King."

"So King Philip buys the flowers, pretty maiden?"

"Yes, madame; I have orders to bring them to the palace daily. The golden lily is his favorite flower; and there are only those in bloom to-day."

"I will take this," said the Countess, selecting one of the bouquets, and taking from her purse a gold piece of more than double the value, "but first bring me a cool draught of water from the spring yonder."

With a light step the young girl took a pitcher and passed out to the spring that was but a short distance from the door. As she glanced in and saw, much to her surprise, her visitor bending over the stand of flowers, and apparently sprinkling something from her hand upon those she had laid aside for the King.

"When she took it away her eye caught a gleam of a small golden flask, such as the ladies of that period used for their cosmetics and perfumery. But when she entered the room, she found her in the same position in which she had been when she came out."

She could not forbear to observe that the Countess was drawing her robe over her head, and turning to the door.

"Take my advice, my good girl; place the stand nearest the window, and be not much over there; their perfume is quite too strong for so small a room."

There was something about those words, carelessly spoken though they were, that deepened the undefined suspicions in the young girl's heart; and following her suggestion, she placed the stand of flowers directly in front of the open window. Then by a close examination of the bouquet detained for the King she detected the presence of a fine white powder, so impalpable to the eye upon the white petals of the rose but clearly visible upon the lilies whose peculiar shape by exposing the leaves to the fall rays of the sun as well as their vivid color, threw it into strong relief; and as she bent over them the faint but penetrating odor that arose made her so giddy that she would have fallen had it not been for the tall and shapely youth who had just entered and whose lively showed him to be in the service of the King.

It was her lover, Francois, King Philip's body servant, and who, passing by the house, called to have a chat with his betrothed.

"How, now, Marie?" he said, looking into her face. "What has frightened the roses from your cheek, and given you such a strange look?"

The honest hearted fellow was sincerely attached to his royal master, and he listened gravely to Marie's account of the strange conduct of her visitor, and the suspicion to which it gave rise.

"It has a bad look," he said thoughtfully; "though I believe there is nothing in it. By good luck, I have orders to attend his majesty in his private apartments an hour hence. I will put him on his guard; then surely no harm can come of it."

Somewhat to the surprise of Francois, the King manifested no disquietude at this disclosure, though the grave look and attentive manner with which he listened, showed that he considered it of no light import. He bade him charge Marie to tell no one of what she had discovered, and to come to the palace with her flowers an hour earlier than was her wont, by no means forgetting the golden lilies.

King Philip sat in his audience hall, surrounded by his retinue. A number of the royal family stood near him—among them the Count de Neville, his wife, and the little son, a sweet boy of three, whose winning and sprightly ways made him a favorite with the King.

Marie had been so much interested in the beauty of so much condescension before.

At the Countess entered the little, low room, the pretty flower girl displayed her beautiful collection of bouquets with pardonable pride.

"All any of them are at your service, with the exception of this," she said, pointing to one composed of golden lilies and white roses, and relieved by a few leaves of green; "it is for the King."

"So King Philip buys the flowers, pretty maiden?"

"Yes, madame; I have orders to bring them to the palace daily. The golden lily is his favorite flower; and there are only those in bloom to-day."

"I will take this," said the Countess, selecting one of the bouquets, and taking from her purse a gold piece of more than double the value, "but first bring me a cool draught of water from the spring yonder."

With a light step the young girl took a pitcher and passed out to the spring that was but a short distance from the door. As she glanced in and saw, much to her surprise, her visitor bending over the stand of flowers, and apparently sprinkling something from her hand upon those she had laid aside for the King.

"When she took it away her eye caught a gleam of a small golden flask, such as the ladies of that period used for their cosmetics and perfumery. But when she entered the room, she found her in the same position in which she had been when she came out."

She could not forbear to observe that the Countess was drawing her robe over her head, and turning to the door.

"Take my advice, my good girl; place the stand nearest the window, and be not much over there; their perfume is quite too strong for so small a room."

There was something about those words, carelessly spoken though they were, that deepened the undefined suspicions in the young girl's heart; and following her suggestion, she placed the stand of flowers directly in front of the open window. Then by a close examination of the bouquet detained for the King she detected the presence of a fine white powder, so impalpable to the eye upon the white petals of the rose but clearly visible upon the lilies whose peculiar shape by exposing the leaves to the fall rays of the sun as well as their vivid color, threw it into strong relief; and as she bent over them the faint but penetrating odor that arose made her so giddy that she would have fallen had it not been for the tall and shapely youth who had just entered and whose lively showed him to be in the service of the King.

It was her lover, Francois, King Philip's body servant, and who, passing by the house, called to have a chat with his betrothed.

"How, now, Marie?" he said, looking into her face. "What has frightened the roses from your cheek, and given you such a strange look?"

The honest hearted fellow was sincerely attached to his royal master, and he listened gravely to Marie's account of the strange conduct of her visitor, and the suspicion to which it gave rise.

"It has a bad look," he said thoughtfully; "though I believe there is nothing in it. By good luck, I have orders to attend his majesty in his private apartments an hour hence. I will put him on his guard; then surely no harm can come of it."

Somewhat to the surprise of Francois, the King manifested no disquietude at this disclosure, though the grave look and attentive manner with which he listened, showed that he considered it of no light import. He bade him charge Marie to tell no one of what she had discovered, and to come to the palace with her flowers an hour earlier than was her wont, by no means forgetting the golden lilies.

King Philip sat in his audience hall, surrounded by his retinue. A number of the royal family stood near him—among them the Count de Neville, his wife, and the little son, a sweet boy of three, whose winning and sprightly ways made him a favorite with the King.

THE SENTINEL.

MOUNT STERLING, KY.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1866.

LOCAL ITEMS.

187 S. H. PARRY, 63 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, is our agent for that city.

188 W. N. & Co., Industrial and Commercial Agents, Louisville, Ky., are our authorized agents for that city.

189 O. B. DUFF is a candidate for City Marshal at the ensuing June election.

190 WE are authorized to announce SAMUEL L. WILLIAMS, as a candidate for City Marshal at the ensuing June election.

191 See advertisement of Pocket Book lost in another column.

192 Hoffman & Co. have just received a large invoice of fine French china ware.

193 The attention of stock raisers is directed to the advertisement of the fine Jack Veto, to be found in another column.

194 We this week announce Mr. Saml L. Williams as a candidate for Town Marshal, at the ensuing June election.

195 DIED.—One day last week, at his home, JOHN WILLIAMS, an old and respectable citizen of Winchester, Ky.

196 The Grassy Lick Turnpike Company advertise for bids for the construction of five miles of their road. See advertisement.

197 Wm. Hoffman will sell on the 27th inst., a valuable town lot adjoining the seminary property. The lot is suitable for building or gardening purposes.

198 Hon. Garrett Davis will please accept our thanks for a copy of the official array register, and other valuable documents.

199 SURETY INVESTMENT.—The Kentucky Prize Concert, to be drawn at Lexington Ky., May 31st. Valuable Gifts for one dollar. See advertisement in another column.

200 PETEASOR for May is on our table. As usual, its engravings are perfect gems of art, and its literary matter of a very high order of excellence. It is not only the cheapest but the best of our monthlies.

201 The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of the Kentucky Insurance Company. This is a home company, and should be patronized by the people of the State.

202 We understand Mr. James H. Roberts, the present proprietor of the "Roberts House," in this place, contemplates leaving the Olympian Springs, and opening there this summer for the benefit of the pleasure seeking public.

203 Lee & Wilson, in addition to their present stock of Cassimere, have samples of all kinds and grades, which they furnish to order. Call at their store, examine samples, leave your order, and in three or four days you have your goods.

204 SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The children of the Christian Sunday School are requested to meet in the Presbyterian Church, on next Sunday, at 4 o'clock, P. M. An address will be delivered by Mr. G. C. Lockhart. The children of the other Sunday schools are invited to be present.

205 On Monday evening last, a couple of gentlemen engaged in an altercation on Bank street, in this city. Pistols were drawn, but the intervention of bystanders prevented a tragedy. The excitement was intense for a few moments. It all ended, however, in liberal contributions to the Met-casse fund.

206 FIRE.—We regret to learn that the residence of Mrs. Allen, widow of Chilton Allen of Winchester, was consumed by fire one day last week. It was occupied at the time by Mr. Cheney, the pastor of the Presbyterian church, and for a long time principal of the Winchester Female Academy. Nothing was saved.

207 On Sunday, one of our young boys started to the country in a buggy, drawn by a fast team. The team proved a little too fast on this occasion, leaving the buggy and his buggy a good deal in the condition of Lowry's butternut—scattered along the road in spots. Moral: It is sometimes safer to walk out to see a sweetheart than to drive out "in style."

208 "KENTUCKY HOTEL."—We again remind our readers of the excellent qualities of this house. Always up with the season, the table is supplied with everything the market affords, and served up in style that will satisfy the most fastidious. Mrs. Carter, the proprietress, with such indomitable energy, with polite and accommodating clerks, justly deserves the patronage of the public.

209 MR. STERLING AND LEVY TURNPIKE ROAD.—The stockholders of this road met at Wilkerson's shop on Saturday last, and elected the following officers: President, Marion Oldham; Directors, M. W. Anderson, Richard McKee, Dr. J. P. Turner, Frank Cheneault, George W. Anderson, Will H. Winn, Treasurer and Secretary.

210 We are informed the company have secured the services of Gen. Ammen to survey and locate the route, and that it is their intention to at once put the road under contract.

THE TEMPLE OF FASHION.

NEW GOODS! LATEST STYLES!

Most Reasonable Prices!

Opening of the Spring Campaign OF 1866!

LEE & WILSON

WE would respectfully announce to our old friends and customers, and the Public generally, that they are now daily receiving directly from the East the largest and most desirable

Stock of Dry Goods

Ever brought to this market. Our stock is present at the New York Importers, and made his selections from the imported original inventors, thus securing the very best imitations, thereby forestalling the jobbers and allowing us to display upon our shelves in Mt. Sterling the Latest Styles, and Most Fashionable Fabrics of the European Parts.

At the same moment they are upon the public's constant eye. We have the most desirable styles of

Silks, Grandines, Chamois, &c.

Novel Designs and Colorings.

To which we invite the attention of the Ladies, as the like has never been offered for sale in this city. Our line of

FANCY WHITE GOODS!

is full and complete, embracing everything in usual demand.

Our Hoop Skirt Department!

EMPEROR TRAIL

DUPLIX ELLIPTIC.

Is supplied directly from the Manufacture of Bradley & Co., and contains all the latest and most graceful styles.

We flatter ourselves that our present importation is unsurpassed and unapproachable. Give us a call, and exercise your own judgment. Ladies, LEE & WILSON, Main Street, March 20.

Special Notices.

AUGUST ELECTION—1866.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

RICHARD E. BOLLING is a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, at the next August election.

221 WE are authorized to announce JOHN P. THOMPSON, of Henderson, District Attorney, as a candidate for the Clerkship of the Court of Appeals, at the next August election. JAS. H. TRIMBLE, Jan. 29, 1866.

For Sheriff.

To the Voters of Montgomery County.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff at the next regular election. I am a native of this county, and have resided here for many years. I am a Democrat, and believe in the principles of the Democratic Party. I am a man of integrity, and I am confident that I can perform the duties of the office with honor and efficiency. I am a native of this county, and have resided here for many years. I am a Democrat, and believe in the principles of the Democratic Party. I am a man of integrity, and I am confident that I can perform the duties of the office with honor and efficiency.

For County Court Clerk.

JOHN MADRIX is a candidate for County Court Clerk of Montgomery county, at the ensuing August election, subject to the decision of a fair and honest Democratic Convention, should there be one called.

222 WE are authorized to announce Mr. J. J. GIBSON as a candidate for County Court Clerk of Montgomery county, at the ensuing August election.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Sexual Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by immoderate and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this simple remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicinal preparation, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it. Fee of Charge.

Please enclose a post-paid envelope, addressed to yourself.

JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Fifth House, New York City, Aug. 18 y.

NEW DRY GOODS

STORE AT CAMARGO!

OREAR, WYATT & BRO.

ANNOUNCE to the people of Montgomery county, that they have purchased the stock of Goods of W. W. Thompson & Co., at Camargo, and are now carrying on a regular Dry Goods Business at his old stand. We have just received direct from the Eastern Cities a large and fashionable which we pledge ourselves to sell as cheap as they can be bought in any of our neighboring towns. The Ladies are especially invited to call and examine our goods before making their purchases.

Stock of Dry Goods,

223 All persons indebted to the late firm of W. W. Thompson & Co. are notified that they must come forward and settle off their indebtedness, for the business of the old firm must be settled up.

OLD WAXY.

WAXY is standing lower than any horse of his class in Kentucky.

HE will make the present season at his old stand, one mile east of Winchester, and will serve the mares at FIFTEEN DOLLARS to insure a living colt.

Grass furnished mares from a distance at $1.50 a month, in all cases to be paid before the mare is removed. Mares sold, or otherwise disposed of, the season will be claimed. As it is difficult and injurious to travel young colts, mares from a distance can be sent before foaling. They will be put by themselves, and great care taken with them.

Description and Pedigree:

Waxy was bred by Isaac Vanmeter; he is a beautiful chestnut sorrel, 15 hands high, and has a fine head and condition.

Waxy was got by Dr. E. Warfield's thoroughbred horse, Borthwick; his dam was by Stormy Petrel, a thoroughbred son of Medoc; his grand dam by the celebrated Tom Hal.

April 6. W. H. BENICK.

Sentinel copy 2 months and charge 0/0.

JOHNSON & THOMPSON'S COLUMN.

NEW STORE! NEW FIRM! NEW GOODS!

JOHNSON & THOMPSON,

ON MAIN ST., MT. STERLING, KY.

Direct from the Eastern Cities, the largest and most complete assortment of

Dry Goods and Domestic!

Every article in this market, our stock is selected in person at the East, with a view to the wants of this community. Our fabrics are all of the latest and most fashionable styles, and are the products of the best looms in this and the world. Our stock consists in part of the following:

Plain Blk, Fancy, Striped & Check'd

SILKS,

Organdies, Jacksonet, Keochlands, and Linon Lawns

Tartanines, Crape Marets, Tarlatans, Mozambique, and

Bon Jour De Laines,

PLAIN AND FANCY COLORED Alpaccas,

Chambray Gingham, French Gingham, and Domestic Gingham,

Saragosa, American, Richmond & Mericac PRINTS.

The above line of Dress Goods, we have in full and complete assortment, purchased with care, of which we can say, for quality, none better for appearance, more perfect, for style, none later.

New York Mills and Lonsdale

Black Muslins, Atlantic A and Princeton A

HEAVY BROWN MUSLINS,

Fine Brown Muslin and Heavy Brown Drillings,

Coltonades, Checks & Stripes,

Fine Cottonades,

and Linens for Summer Wear.

A fine Assortment of DRESS TRIMMINGS AND LACES.

The real and imitation Valenciennes, Swiss and Jaconet Edgings and insertings, Valenciennes and Lace Collars, Mourning Collars, Sets, Sleeves and Collars, Embroidering and Braiding Beads, Gimpure Laces, Handkerchiefs, Linon Chambray Handkerchiefs, Plain and Fgd. Imperial Corsets, Fr. Corsets, Breakfast Corsets.

White Goods, consisting of Smith's real plain and figured Tissues, Mulls, plain and striped, and all the latest novelties of Wash Nets, English Grapes, Green and Blue, Billiantines, Bird eye Diaper, Linen and Cotton Diaper, Irish Linens, Richmonds, Son's, Son's, and Olen's manufacture. Table cloths, brown and bleached Table Linens of all figures, &c., &c.

HOOP SKIRTS.

WESTS, BRADLEY AND CURRY'S DUPLIX ELLIPTIC 3 INCH TAPES, DOUBLE SPRING OF FINEST STEEL IN STYLE "PRIDE OF THE WORLD"

"PARIS TRAIL" IMMOVABLE "TIZ TOPS" & "EXPRESS TRAIL"

NOTIONS.

AN ASSORTMENT OF WHICH WE HAVE, EMBRACING EVERYTHING FROM THE AMERICAN PIN TO THE FINEST ESTABLISHED HOSE.

HATS AND CAPS.

IN LIGHT OR DARK COLORS, FROM THE FINEST CHEAPEST GRADE OF WOOL.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Made according to our order in the Factory of quality and style adapted to our Trade.

Cloths, Cassimere and Vestings.

A full assortment of styles and Colors embracing a line of French Goods at prices comparatively low.

We respectfully invite our friends to call and inspect our line of Goods and list of prices. We warrant our goods to be exactly what we represent them to be. While we will not assert that our goods will prove better than other houses, we can guarantee our goods to be exactly what we represent them to be. We warrant our goods to be exactly what we represent them to be. While we will not assert that our goods will prove better than other houses, we can guarantee our goods to be exactly what we represent them to be.

James Wilson, respectfully announces to the citizens of Camargo and Montgomery county, that he has opened a New Grocery in Camargo, and those desiring to patronize him, can do so at all times. His stock consists of Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Molasses, Fig, Pickled Oranges, Canned Fruits, &c. In fact, everything in the Grocery line. Call and examine by stock. Respectfully, JAS. WILSON.

March 26, 1866.

THE TEMPLE OF FASHION.

NEW GOODS! LATEST STYLES!

Most Reasonable Prices!

Opening of the Spring Campaign OF 1866!

LEE & WILSON

WE would respectfully announce to our old friends and customers, and the Public generally, that they are now daily receiving directly from the East the largest and most desirable

Stock of Dry Goods

Ever brought to this market. Our stock is present at the New York Importers, and made his selections from the imported original inventors, thus securing the very best imitations, thereby forestalling the jobbers and allowing us to display upon our shelves in Mt. Sterling the Latest Styles, and Most Fashionable Fabrics of the European Parts.

At the same moment they are upon the public's constant eye. We have the most desirable styles of

Silks, Grandines, Chamois, &c.

Novel Designs and Colorings.

To which we invite the attention of the Ladies, as the like has never been offered for sale in this city. Our line of

FANCY WHITE GOODS!

is full and complete, embracing everything in usual demand.

Our Hoop Skirt Department!

EMPEROR TRAIL

DUPLIX ELLIPTIC.

Is supplied directly from the Manufacture of Bradley & Co., and contains all the latest and most graceful styles.

We flatter ourselves that our present importation is unsurpassed and unapproachable. Give us a call, and exercise your own judgment. Ladies, LEE & WILSON, Main Street, March 20.

Special Notices.

AUGUST ELECTION—1866.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

RICHARD E. BOLLING is a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, at the next August election.

221 WE are authorized to announce JOHN P. THOMPSON, of Henderson, District Attorney, as a candidate for the Clerkship of the Court of Appeals, at the next August election. JAS. H. TRIMBLE, Jan. 29, 1866.

For Sheriff.

To the Voters of Montgomery County.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff at the next regular election. I am a native of this county, and have resided here for many years. I am a Democrat, and believe in the principles of the Democratic Party. I am a man of integrity, and I am confident that I can perform the duties of the office with honor and efficiency. I am a native of this county, and have resided here for many years. I am a Democrat, and believe in the principles of the Democratic Party. I am a man of integrity, and I am confident that I can perform the duties of the office with honor and efficiency.

For County Court Clerk.

JOHN MADRIX is a candidate for County Court Clerk of Montgomery county, at the ensuing August election, subject to the decision of a fair and honest Democratic Convention, should there be one called.

222 WE are authorized to announce Mr. J. J. GIBSON as a candidate for County Court Clerk of Montgomery county, at the ensuing August election.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Sexual Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by immoderate and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this simple remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicinal preparation, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it. Fee of Charge.

Please enclose a post-paid envelope, addressed to yourself.

JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Fifth House, New York City, Aug. 18 y.

NEW DRY GOODS

STORE AT CAMARGO!

OREAR, WYATT & BRO.

ANNOUNCE to the people of Montgomery county, that they have purchased the stock of Goods of W. W. Thompson & Co., at Camargo, and are now carrying on a regular Dry Goods Business at his old stand. We have just received direct from the Eastern Cities a large and fashionable which we pledge ourselves to sell as cheap as they can be bought in any of our neighboring towns. The Ladies are especially invited to call and examine our goods before making their purchases.

Stock of Dry Goods,

223 All persons indebted to the late firm of W. W. Thompson & Co. are notified that they must come forward and settle off their indebtedness, for the business of the old firm must be settled up.

OLD WAXY.

WAXY is standing lower than any horse of his class in Kentucky.

HE will make the present season at his old stand, one mile east of Winchester, and will serve the mares at FIFTEEN DOLLARS to insure a living colt.

Grass furnished mares from a distance at $1.50 a month, in all cases to be paid before the mare is removed. Mares sold, or otherwise disposed of, the season will be claimed. As it is difficult and injurious to travel young colts, mares from a distance can be sent before foaling. They will be put by themselves, and great care taken with them.

Description and Pedigree:

Waxy was bred by Isaac Vanmeter; he is a beautiful chestnut sorrel, 15 hands high, and has a fine head and condition.

Waxy was got by Dr. E. Warfield's thoroughbred horse, Borthwick; his dam was by Stormy Petrel, a thoroughbred son of Medoc; his grand dam by the celebrated Tom Hal.

April 6. W. H. BENICK.

Sentinel copy 2 months and charge 0/0.

JOHNSON & THOMPSON'S COLUMN.

NEW STORE! NEW FIRM! NEW GOODS!

JOHNSON & THOMPSON,

ON MAIN ST., MT. STERLING, KY.

Direct from the Eastern Cities, the largest and most complete assortment of

Dry Goods and Domestic!

Every article in this market, our stock is selected in person at the East, with a view to the wants of this community. Our fabrics are all of the latest and most fashionable styles, and are the products of the best looms in this and the world. Our stock consists in part of the following:

Plain Blk, Fancy, Striped & Check'd

SILKS,

Organdies, Jacksonet, Keochlands, and Linon Lawns

Tartanines, Crape Marets, Tarlatans, Mozambique, and

Bon Jour De Laines,

PLAIN AND FANCY COLORED Alpaccas,

Chambray Gingham, French Gingham, and Domestic Gingham,

Saragosa, American, Richmond & Mericac PRINTS.

The above line of Dress Goods, we have in full and complete assortment, purchased with care, of which we can say, for quality, none better for appearance, more perfect, for style, none later.

New York Mills and Lonsdale

Black Muslins, Atlantic A and Princeton A

HEAVY BROWN MUSLINS,

Fine Brown Muslin and Heavy Brown Drillings,

Coltonades, Checks & Stripes,

Fine Cottonades,

and Linens for Summer Wear.

A fine Assortment of DRESS TRIMMINGS AND LACES.

The real and imitation Valenciennes, Swiss and Jaconet Edgings and insertings, Valenciennes and Lace Collars, Mourning Collars, Sets, Sleeves and Collars, Embroidering and Braiding Beads, Gimpure Laces, Handkerchiefs, Linon Chambray Handkerchiefs, Plain and Fgd. Imperial Corsets, Fr. Corsets, Breakfast Corsets.

White Goods, consisting of Smith's real plain and figured Tissues, Mulls, plain and striped, and all the latest novelties of Wash Nets, English Grapes, Green and Blue, Billiantines, Bird eye Diaper, Linen and Cotton Diaper, Irish Linens, Richmonds, Son's, Son's, and Olen's manufacture. Table cloths, brown and bleached Table Linens of all figures, &c., &c.

HOOP SKIRTS.

WESTS, BRADLEY AND CURRY'S DUPLIX ELLIPTIC 3 INCH TAPES, DOUBLE SPRING OF FINEST STEEL IN STYLE "PRIDE OF THE WORLD"

"PARIS TRAIL" IMMOVABLE "TIZ TOPS" & "EXPRESS TRAIL"

NOTIONS.

AN ASSORTMENT OF WHICH WE HAVE, EMBRACING EVERYTHING FROM THE AMERICAN PIN TO THE FINEST ESTABLISHED HOSE.

HATS AND CAPS.

IN LIGHT OR DARK COLORS, FROM THE FINEST CHEAPEST GRADE OF WOOL.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Made according to our order in

A GOOD MEDICINE
The People's Friend

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER,
THE GREAT
FAMILY MEDICINE OF THE AGE

It cures Sudden Cold, Cough, &c. Weak Stomach, General Debility, Nausea, Headache, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Pains in the Face, Nerve-ache, Rheumatism, &c. A sure remedy for all these ailments.

PAIN KILLER taken internally, should be administered with milk or water, or made into a syrup with molasses. For a Cough, a few drops on sugar eaten will be more effective than any other.

PAIN KILLER taken internally, should be administered with milk or water, or made into a syrup with molasses. For a Cough, a few drops on sugar eaten will be more effective than any other.

The PAIN KILLER is by universal consent allowed to have won for its reputation, unsurpassed in the history of medicinal preparations. Its instantaneous effect in the entire eradication and extinction of PAIN in all its various forms incident to the human family, and its unqualified written and verbal testimony of the masses in its favor, have been and are its own best advertisement.

BEWARE OF ALL IMITATIONS!
The Pain Killer is sold by all respectable Druggists throughout the United States and in Foreign Countries.

Price—25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle.
J. N. HARRIS & CO., Cincinnati, O.
Sole Wholesale and Retail for the Southern and Western States.
Sold Wholesale and Retail by
Edward Wilder & Co., Louisville, Ky.
R. A. Robinson & Co., do
Erwin & Pendleton, Nashville, Tenn.
J. T. Green, Mount Sterling, Ky.
Also, by all Wholesale Druggists in Kentucky.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,
THE GREAT REMEDY
FOR THE CURE OF
CONSUMPTION,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

THE results of its use is a proof of its great value. The extraordinary Healing Properties of this remedy are experienced by all those who have used it. Their testimony will be found in a pamphlet, which can be had of the Agents where the medicine is for sale.

Allen's Lung Balsam contains no opium in any form. It is perfectly harmless for the most delicate child.
Consumption would do well to read his treatise on diseased lungs.
Physicians who have failed to cure their patients should try this medicine. It has cured here in this case, and we know very many valuable lives have been saved by being persuaded to take it.

Allen's Lung Balsam is put up with great care, and with the most valuable ingredients of the signature of the proprietors.

DON'T FORGET THAT
ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will break up the most obstinate Cough in a few hours time.
Many cases of Consumption, that were considered incurable, have been cured here in this case. Call and get a pamphlet, and read the remarkable cures, which will convince you of the great value of this medicine.

Allen's Lung Balsam is put up with great care, and with the most valuable ingredients of the signature of the proprietors.

Important to the Ladies!
LEARD & SIMMS' PATENT SYSTEM
EMBROIDERING AND BRAIDING.

MRS. LUCY CAMPBELL
WOULD respectfully announce to the Ladies of Mt. Sterling, and Montgomery county, that she has purchased the exclusive right to use this system of Embroidering and Braiding in this county. It is especially adapted for LADIES' CHILDREN'S DRESSES, and OTHER CLOTHING.

COVERS, BANDERCHIEFS, NECK TIES, &c., &c.
If it can be executed the most fashionable style of Embroidering and Braiding, and at the same time, and on goods of almost any material. Her designs are most liberal—much less than the cost of the old system. She can also repair and alter all kinds of dresses, and other clothing, and will be happy to exhibit specimens, and receive orders.

LIVERY & SALE STABLE.
The Large and Commodious Livery Stable attached to the Kentucky Hotel, under the immediate supervision of

W. H. GATEWOOD,
Has undergone a thorough repair, and is supplied with new Carriages, Buggies, Hacks, &c. For the day or week. Persons wanting anything of the kind will find me, or some one at the office of the stable, at any hour of the day or night, or at the office of the Kentucky Hotel.

WILLARD HOTEL,
The Court House, Maysville, Ky.
Is repaired, newly fitted and furnished.

WILLARD HOTEL,
The Court House, Maysville, Ky.
Is repaired, newly fitted and furnished.

H. CAMPBELL, MOUNT STERLING, KENTUCKY.

Superior Quality of Goods!
Consisting of the following:

Cloths, Cassimers, VESTINGS,

HATS & CAPS!

FURNISHING GOODS,

GOOD FIT.
My work is in every case

Warranted to give Satisfaction!
It being manufactured by the

BEST PRACTICAL TAILORS
The country affords. I also keep constantly on hand a large and fashionable lot of

READY MADE CLOTHING,
Which I offer for sale at the

LOWEST PRICES.
Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to me, and requesting a continuance of the same, I am, Respectfully,
J. H. CAMPBELL,
July 19, 1865.

GREAT BARGAINS DRY GOODS!

NEW STYLES OF DRESS GOODS!
EMBROIDERIES,
Gloves, Hosiery,
STAPLE DRY GOODS,
CLOTHS & CASSIMERS

BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS,
QUEENWARE AND GLASSWARE!
And a large and elegant stock of

CARPETS, FLOOR AND FURNITURE
OIL CLOTHS, HEARTH RUGS,
Worsted Damasks, &c.,

All of which I will sell at CINCINNATI PRICES. I purchased my goods for Cash, and with great care, and believe that I can offer you inducements to give me your patronage. I am doing strictly a CASH BUSINESS, and will sell at a small advance on New York Prices. Call and see my Goods, and don't buy them up here you want to. Very Respectfully,
Sept. 22. ROBT. M. BARNES.

Maysville Marble Works!
H. GILLMORE,

MAYSVILLE, KY.
ORDERS from Country Solicited. Persons desiring work by communicating or orders left with Mr. JAMES H. ROBERTS, at the Roberts House, Mt. Sterling, Ky., will receive prompt attention. aug-9-55

PLOWS! PLOWS!

THE undersigned would announce to the Farmers of Montgomery, and the adjoining counties, that he has now on hand a lot of STEEL PLOWS, of all sizes, of his own make. As the farmers are well acquainted with my work, I do not deem it necessary to go into a long "pull" of it. I will only say the work I have on hand at this time is as good as I have ever made. REPAIRING done at the shortest notice.

1866. PHILADELPHIA. 1866.
WALL PAPERS, HOWELL & BOURKE,
NEWSPAPERS OF
PAPER HANGINGS AND WINDOW SHADES
CORNER FOURTH AND MARKET STS.,
PHILADELPHIA.

N.B.—Always in Store, a large Stock of LINEN & OIL SHADES
Jan. 26-27-28m.

NEW STOVE & TINWARE ESTABLISHMENT.

DENNIS McMAHON,
WOULD respectfully announce to the people of Montgomery and the adjoining counties, that he has opened a new Stove and Tinware Establishment in Mt. Sterling, in the room adjoining Crawford & Capps' Grocery, where he intends keeping on hand a large lot of

Stoves & Fancy Japaned Ware
And all kinds of

Tinware of his own Manufacture!
Which he will sell at cheap, if no cheaper, than any other house in this section of the State. He is also prepared to attend to all orders for

Roofing and Gutters!
REPAIRING of all kinds promptly attended to.
Jan. 12.

WILSON & GILKEY,
Manufacturers and Dealers in
BOOTS AND SHOES
Maysville, Ky.

HARDWARE!
AT THE
SIGN OF THE BIG LOCK
Main Street,
MT. STERLING, KY.

HOFFMAN & CO.,
WOULD respectfully announce to the citizens of Montgomery and the adjoining counties, that they are now daily receiving and constantly opening at their old stand (Sign of the Big Lock) fresh invoices of goods in their line. Their stock consists exclusively of first-class goods, made of first-class material, and of the latest standard patterns. Persons buying of them may confidently rely upon getting the best, and at prices that will compare favorably with those of any similar establishment in the West. They have on hand (just received) the following class of goods, embracing only a small tithe of their stock:

Stoves! Stoves! Stoves!!!
All styles Cooking Stoves, every pattern Box Stoves, Stoves for the Parlor, Stoves for Public Rooms, Stoves for Family Rooms

FIRE-PLACE FURNITURE!
Franklin Stoves, Coal Grates, Stoves, and

TABLE APPLIANCES!
Kilns and Forks, Table and Teapots, Soap and Sauce Spoons, Carving Knives & Forks. From the best English, German and American Factories.

Our Cutlery Department!
Is especially complete—being supplied with everything in daily request among ladies and gentlemen, comprising in part, the best makes of Shears and Scissors, Pen and Pocket Knives, Razors and Hooks, all of which have been selected with an eye to excellence of workmanship and durability of material.

CARPENTERS, CABINET-MAKERS,
In short, every one who needs and uses Edgewood, of whatever kind, may secure them at this establishment. Their Stock of Planes, Saws, Chisels, Hatchets, Squares, Levels, Axes, &c.

Is the best ever offered in this market. Their line of NAILS, SCREWS, LOCKE CHAINS, CASTINGS, &c., &c.

CHINA, GLASS, AND QUEENWARE,
Ever exposed for sale in this community, which embraces all the newest, most elegant, and most fashionable styles. To supply the want long felt in this community, they have laid in a full line of

Wall Papers and Window Shades,
Of the most beautiful and fashionable designs which they will dispose of at a very small advance on the New York price.

In conclusion, they respectfully invite the public to call and examine their stock, and they feel confident that they will be able to give perfect satisfaction to all.

HOFFMAN & CO.,
Mt. Sterling, Feb. 7.

MISS TENNESSEE'S

HATS, CAPS
—AND—
STRAW GOODS,

CINCINNATI, OHIO.
Pearce, Tolle & Holton,
IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS OF
Foreign, Domestic, Staple & Fancy
DRY GOODS,
HOSIERY, NOTIONS, &c.

7, South-West cor. Pearl and Vine Sts
CINCINNATI.

Rowland, Irvine & Co.
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
BOOTS & SHOES,
No. 102 WALNUT STREET,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

ROBERT'S HOUSE
JAS. H. ROBERTS, Proprietor.
Has recently purchased the well-known Hotel and formerly called the "Sterling House," and respectfully announces to the traveling public that he has now opened the house for the accommodation of the public. The house has been thoroughly scoured from attic to cellar, and refurnished with new and elegant furniture. I can say with truth, that there is nowhere a better appointed hotel placed in Montgomery County. I will do my utmost to deserve the patronage asked for, by attention to the wants of guests.

There is connected with the hotel a large and commodious stable, and persons stopping at the house may rely upon having their stock well cared for.
Feb. 2.

Saddle and Harness MANUFACTORY.
SADDLES, Harness, Bridles, Stirrups, Gun Sponges, Whips, Collars, Blankets, and many other articles too tedious to mention. All the above mentioned to be of the best material, and no one before purchasing elsewhere. REPAIRING done on the shortest notice.
JAS. H. ROBERTS,
Main St., Mt. Sterling, Ky.
July 21.

MISS TENNESSEE,
The Great
Clairvoyant & Magnetic Doctoress,
No. 422 West High Street,
Below Mount Cincinnati, Ohio.
Sold by all druggists in the United States.
March 30-ly.

FLAT RAILS FOR SALE.
HAVE for sale about 1200 or 1500 Good Flat Rails.
J. S. WILSON,
Fuller, Ky.

CINCINNATI ADVERTISEMENTS
H. C. BRUCE & CO.,
WHOLESALE GROCER

AND—
COMMISSION MERCHANTS
No. 36 N. Second or Columbia Street,
April 6-ly. CINCINNATI, OHIO.

FAIRBANK'S SCALES

OF ALL KINDS.
Cotton Beams and Frames, Cotton Hay and Rag Presses, Warehouse Trucks, Baggage Barrows, Copying Presses, &c.

FAIRBANKS, MORSE & CO.,
125 Walnut Street, CINCINNATI, Ohio.
Feb. 2-lyshp.

W. M. MADDOX has this day withdrawn from the firm of Maddox Brothers, Thomas Maddox, Thomas A. Matthews, Mayville, Kentucky, and H. G. Sexton, has been admitted. The business will be conducted as heretofore under the style and firm of

MADDOX BROS. & CO.,
No 37 Pearl St.,
Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 1, 1866.

DEALERS IN
Manufactured & Leaf Tobacco
CIGARS & TEA.
No 27 Pearl Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Referring to the above, I beg leave to say that I am my old friends and customers a guarantee of the quality and custom to the new firm. W. B. MADDOX
Jan. 19, 1866-ly

Levi Friedman, Sam'l Stern, Jas. S. Turner, FRIEDMAN, STERN & TURNER, WHOLESALE CLOTHING

Cloths, Cassimers, VESTINGS & TRIMMINGS,
No. 68 PEARL STREET,
Bet. Walnut & Vine, CINCINNATI, O.
August 18, 1865.

W. S. Dickinson, Jas. Z. Price, Jas. W. Bishop, DICKINSON, PRICE & BISHOP,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
HATS, CAPS,

FURS AND STRAW GOODS,
No. 104 PEARL STREET,
CINCINNATI, O.

MASON & FANT,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
HATS, CAPS
—AND—
STRAW GOODS,

Warehouse, No. 57 West Pearl St.
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Pearce, Tolle & Holton,
IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS OF
Foreign, Domestic, Staple & Fancy
DRY GOODS,
HOSIERY, NOTIONS, &c.

7, South-West cor. Pearl and Vine Sts
CINCINNATI.

Rowland, Irvine & Co.
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
BOOTS & SHOES,
No. 102 WALNUT STREET,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

ROBERT'S HOUSE
JAS. H. ROBERTS, Proprietor.
Has recently purchased the well-known Hotel and formerly called the "Sterling House," and respectfully announces to the traveling public that he has now opened the house for the accommodation of the public. The house has been thoroughly scoured from attic to cellar, and refurnished with new and elegant furniture. I can say with truth, that there is nowhere a better appointed hotel placed in Montgomery County. I will do my utmost to deserve the patronage asked for, by attention to the wants of guests.

There is connected with the hotel a large and commodious stable, and persons stopping at the house may rely upon having their stock well cared for.
Feb. 2.

Saddle and Harness MANUFACTORY.
SADDLES, Harness, Bridles, Stirrups, Gun Sponges, Whips, Collars, Blankets, and many other articles too tedious to mention. All the above mentioned to be of the best material, and no one before purchasing elsewhere. REPAIRING done on the shortest notice.
JAS. H. ROBERTS,
Main St., Mt. Sterling, Ky.
July 21.

MISS TENNESSEE,
The Great
Clairvoyant & Magnetic Doctoress,
No. 422 West High Street,
Below Mount Cincinnati, Ohio.
Sold by all druggists in the United States.
March 30-ly.

FLAT RAILS FOR SALE.
HAVE for sale about 1200 or 1500 Good Flat Rails.
J. S. WILSON,
Fuller, Ky.

CRAWFORD & CAPPS,
DEALERS IN
Family Groceries,
MOUNT STERLING, KY.

Below Kentucky Hotel,
KEEP constantly on hand a choice selection of

Family Groceries,
Consisting of the following:

Granulated, Pulverized & Refined SUGARS!
Of the best brands;

COFFEE, TEA, TOBACCO,
MACKEREL,
Shot, Powder, Caps,
AND CIGARS.

All the best brands of Cheesing and Smoking Tobacco, and a fine assortment of

CANNED FRUITS!
Lemon Syrup, Candies, Omelets, Starch, Soap Spices, and many other articles. Give us a call and we will guarantee satisfaction. We hope by strict attention to business and fair dealing, to be able to give with our fellow townsmen in every respect, the regards, prices and quality of our goods. We return our sincere thanks for past favors, and ask a continuance of the same. Attached to our Grocery is

A SALOON.
The Bar is furnished with the best and

PUREST LIQUORS,
Persons wishing a good drink can be accommodated at any time. Give me a call.
Nov. 3. CRAWFORD & CAPPS.

KENTUCKY HOTEL,
Cor. Main & Maysville Sts.,
MT. STERLING, KY.

MRS. MARY CAMTER, Propress.
THIS House has recently been thoroughly refurnished, and is now in complete order for the reception of guests.

The Proprietress, thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to her house, begs leave to re-assure all who may be tempted to her patronage, that no effort will be spared on the part of her or her assistants, to render them the utmost satisfaction. Her

is at all times supplied with the best market affords. The

SALOON,
Under the management of Mr. Jos. E. Lindsay is supplied with the choice of Cigars, &c. &c. July 21, 1865.

JOHN CULLEY, FAMOUS BOOT & SHOE MAKER,
MAIN STREET,
MT. STERLING, KY.

Opposite Crawford & Capps' Grocery.
KERPS constantly on hand and is always prepared to furnish any style of turnout desired, from a

Boot or Shoe!
Persons wishing anything in my line would do well to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere, as I will guarantee satisfaction in every case.
July 21, 1865.

WOOD & BROTHER, LIVERY AND SALE STABLES,
Main Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

WOULD respectfully announce to the public, that he has associated with him in the Livery and Sale business, his brother John, consolidating their stock, under the name and firm as above. We are prepared to furnish any style of turnout desired, from a

Royal Carriage to an Irish Buggy.
Their Horses are all blooded and matched animals, and in their stud may be found the Arabian, Best as the winners of the great races, the Andalusian, beautiful and gentle as the daughters of its native clime; the Saxon Greys, enduring toil with the patience, and going ahead with the swiftness of the wind; the English, the stout enough to pull a hill from the foundation.

TRY ONE OF OUR MORGANS.
Do you want something truly to draw your carriage? Try one of our Morgans.

OUR PLANNERS MARK.
With mane long, soft, silky and flowing as a lady's hair. The eyes are blue and gentle as a child's. The ears are small and pointed like a squirrel's. The tail is long and flowing like a queen's. The legs are straight and true. The feet are small and true. The whole is a perfect model of a horse.

In short, if you want anything in the shape of Vehicle or Horseflesh, you need go no further. We always keep them. Our

TERMS ARE SO REASONABLE,
That all persons who patronize us regularly for one year retire rich at the end of that time. We board horses by the

DAY, WEEK OR MONTH.
On favorable terms. Remember when you want a ride, Respectfully,
WOOD & BROTHER.

March 9, 1866-23-ly

PROBERT & McKEE,

Consisting in part of
Dining and Extension Tables,
WHATNOTS, PLAIN & ORNAMENTAL BUREAUS, WASHSTANDS,
Bed Springs, and all kinds of
MATTRESSES AND BEDSTEADS,
SOFA, & THE EXTRA DOUBLE & SINGLE LOUNGES.
Will attend Funerals, and keep all sizes of
WOOD AND METALLIC COFFINS.
I hope the Ladies will call and see my Furniture before buying elsewhere.
March 9, 1866-23-ly E. T. SMITH.

CRAWFORD & CAPPS,
DEALERS IN
Family Groceries,
MOUNT STERLING, KY.

Below Kentucky Hotel,
KEEP constantly on hand a choice selection of

Family Groceries,
Consisting of the following:

Granulated, Pulverized & Refined SUGARS!
Of the best brands;

COFFEE, TEA, TOBACCO,
MACKEREL,
Shot, Powder, Caps,
AND CIGARS.

All the best brands of Cheesing and Smoking Tobacco, and a fine assortment of

CANNED FRUITS!
Lemon Syrup, Candies, Omelets, Starch, Soap Spices, and many other articles. Give us a call and we will guarantee satisfaction. We hope by strict attention to business and fair dealing, to be able to give with our fellow townsmen in every respect, the regards, prices and quality of our goods. We return our sincere thanks for past favors, and ask a continuance of the same. Attached to our Grocery is

A SALOON.
The Bar is furnished with the best and

PUREST LIQUORS,
Persons wishing a good drink can be accommodated at any time. Give me a call.
Nov. 3. CRAWFORD & CAPPS.

KENTUCKY HOTEL,
Cor. Main & Maysville Sts.,
MT. STERLING, KY.

MRS. MARY CAMTER, Propress.
THIS House has recently been thoroughly refurnished, and is now in complete order for the reception of guests.

The Proprietress, thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to her house, begs leave to re-assure all who may be tempted to her patronage, that no effort will be spared on the part of her or her assistants, to render them the utmost satisfaction. Her

is at all times supplied with the best market affords. The

SALOON,
Under the management of Mr. Jos. E. Lindsay is supplied with the choice of Cigars, &c. &c. July 21, 1865.

JOHN CULLEY, FAMOUS BOOT & SHOE MAKER,
MAIN STREET,
MT. STERLING, KY.

Opposite Crawford & Capps' Grocery.
KERPS constantly on hand and is always prepared to furnish any style of turnout desired, from a

Boot or Shoe!
Persons wishing anything in my line would do well to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere, as I will guarantee satisfaction in every case.
July 21, 1865.

WOOD & BROTHER, LIVERY AND SALE STABLES,
Main Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

WOULD respectfully announce to the public, that he has associated with him in the Livery and Sale business, his brother John, consolidating their stock, under the name and firm as above. We are prepared to furnish any style of turnout desired, from a

Royal Carriage to an Irish Buggy.
Their Horses are all blooded and matched animals, and in their stud may be found the Arabian, Best as the winners of the great races, the Andalusian, beautiful and gentle as the daughters of its native clime; the Saxon Greys, enduring toil with the patience, and going ahead with the swiftness of the wind; the English, the stout enough to pull a hill from the foundation.

TRY ONE OF OUR MORGANS.
Do you want something truly to draw your carriage? Try one of our Morgans.

OUR PLANNERS MARK.
With mane long, soft, silky and flowing as a lady's hair. The eyes are blue and gentle as a child's. The ears are small and pointed like a squirrel's. The tail is long and flowing like a queen's. The legs are straight and true. The feet are small and true. The whole is a perfect model of a horse.

In short, if you want anything in the shape of Vehicle or Horseflesh, you need go no further. We always keep them. Our

TERMS ARE SO REASONABLE,
That all persons who patronize us regularly for one year retire rich at the end of that time. We board horses by the

DAY, WEEK OR MONTH.
On favorable terms. Remember when you want a ride, Respectfully,
WOOD & BROTHER.

March 9, 1866-23-ly

PROBERT & McKEE,

Consisting in part of
Dining and Extension Tables,
WHATNOTS, PLAIN & ORNAMENTAL BUREAUS, WASHSTANDS,
Bed Springs, and all kinds of
MATTRESSES AND BEDSTEADS,
SOFA, & THE EXTRA DOUBLE & SINGLE LOUNGES.
Will attend Funerals, and keep all sizes of
WOOD AND METALLIC COFFINS.
I hope the Ladies will call and see my Furniture before buying elsewhere.
March 9, 1866-23-ly E. T. SMITH.

M. C. O'CONNELL,
Wholesale and Retail
GROCER,
AND LIQUOR DEALER,

Corner Court House Square and Mayville Street,
MT. STERLING, KY.

THIS store consists of the best choice of
STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES!

Pure Copper and Domestic Liquors, Wines, Brandies, Gins, Whiskey, Ale, &c.

Tea, Coffee, SUGARS,
Choice Granulated, Pulverized, Refined, White and Yellow
Pure Syrups, Choice

New Orleans Molasses,
Soda, Star and Summer Candles, Blue Soap, Fancy Soap, Starch, Cinnamon, Pepper, Spices, Cloves, Nutmegs, Copperas, Almonds, Indigo, Camphor,

OYSTERS & SARDINES!
Pouches in cans and bottles, Pickles, Sauces, Malt, Washboards, Tubs, Buckets, Washing, Blacking Brushes, Brooms, Bed Cords, Rope,

Kanawha and Table Salt,
Mackerel, White Fish, C